Notes to this Draft

This draft proposes amendments to the Companies Act, 2008 to—

- 5
- (a) better provide for the administration of the principal Act, and in particular to establish a proper foundation for certain necessary regulations;
- (b) continue the mechanisms established under section 335 of the Companies Act, 1973 to allow for the transfer of registration of foreign companies to the jurisdiction of the Republic;
- 10 (c) address significant errors, infelicities and ambiguities that could result in misapplication of the principal Act in a manner contrary to its underlying policy; and
- (d) correct various numbering, spelling, punctuation, reference, alignment and typographical errors in the text.

A Table of Changes is appended to the end of this Bill, setting out a complete list of all provisions of the Companies Act, 2008 affected by amendments proposed in this Bill.
