The same person does not have to attend all the events to qualify for the discount. As long as the bookings are made in advance and with your unique booking number, which will be issued per company, any individual may attend.

SEMINAR	BRIEF DESCRIPTION	THE SPEAKER	WHAT MAKES THIS SEMINAR UNIQUE
Directors Duties and Shareholder Remedies , a half day seminar.	This event will look at the rights and duties of shareholders and directors under the new Companies Act. It will focus in-depth on the new system and the interaction with the Common Law and Codes of Conduct. It will also highlight new principles and duties that will affect the position of the director.	Professor Piet Delpont (LLB, LLD (Pret), H DipTax Law (Wits)) teaches company law and securities law at the University of Pretoria. He is author of The New Companies Act Manual and co-author of Cilliers & Benade's Corporate Law, Entrepreneurial Law, Henochsberg on the Companies Act, Close Corporations Service, Hahlo's South African Company Law through the Cases, Student Case Book on Business Entities and Commercial Law.	Professor Delpont will talk about the new system and how it will differ from the present system. The Companies Act does not exclude the common law and the focus will be on the rights and duties in this dualistic system. The basic premise will be to make practical suggestions as to the position of and potential problem areas for directors when the Companies Act comes into operation. The role, functions and increased rights of shareholders will also be discussed in depth. This will enable delegates to apply and also comply with the new Companies Act.
King III, Corporate Governance and Competition Law , a half day seminar.	This seminar will arm delegates with the necessary knowledge to apply basic governance principles to their organisations. It further highlights how King III and the New Company Act interact, and the various duties that a company now has to comply with. In addition Mr. Judin will expand on the often neglected role of the Competition Law Committee.	J. Michael Judin is currently the Director of Jhb-based Law firm Goldman Judin Inc. He is a non-executive committee member of the Institute of Directors of Southern Africa and a non-executive Director of, and legal advisor to, the American Chamber of Commerce in South Africa. He is well-renowned speaker and is a member of the King III Committee having written the section dealing with negotiation, mediation and arbitration. He serves on the Boards of three Companies listed on the JSE.	Mr. Judin will address the following topics in detail: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The History of the King I; II and III Reports on Corporate Governance;</li> <li>• A discussion of the concept of Governance in South African business;</li> <li>• The consequences of non-compliance with corporate governance under the New Companies Act;</li> <li>• King III and how it ties in with the New Companies Act;</li> <li>• Setting up, monitoring and running your Competition Law Committee as required by King III.</li> </ul>
Corporate Governance and Audit Committees , a business breakfast.	King III and the New Companies Act, 2008 – This seminar will address the responsibilities of auditors and audit committee members, and the responsibilities of directors, as far as the auditing and related corporate governance aspects are concerned.	Professor, Dr Ben Marx is head of the auditing department at the University of Johannesburg, specialising in corporate governance. He serves on various boards and audit committees and regularly advises companies and firms on related matters. He is a member of the compliance and relations subcommittee of King III and completed a doctorate degree on audit committees and corporate governance in 2008, being widely acknowledged as the most comprehensive study to date on these aspects.	New Companies Act (Promulgated 8 April 2009) and King III (to be released September 2009) provide for many and onerous responsibilities for auditors, audit committee members and directly affect directors duties and responsibilities. Not only does it create new responsibilities, but also potential legal liability. Accordingly it is essential for all such parties, (directors, audit committees and auditors) to understand their respective roles, duties and responsibilities thus allowing them to effectively perform their duties and limit their potential legal liability.
Business Rescues , a full day seminar.	Changing the landscape for all those with interests in troubled businesses, the modern new Business Rescue provision will replace the current ineffectual judicial management system.	Jan van der Walt is CEO of Corporate Renewal Solutions. His portfolio includes a career as a turnaround practitioner for both the public and private sector. His is currently completing his Doctorate in Business Administration amongst other qualifications and he was actively involved in government submissions and panel discussions on the new business rescue legislation. Mr. van der Walt is also part of the Business Rescue Committee for the King III report.	This event benefits from overseas research and deliberations of the Business Rescue Task Force of the King III commission on Corporate governance. It provides a unique perspective on Business Rescue highlighting both benefits and disadvantages relative to other processes within business. It offers practical recommendations for businesses in distress.
